

INDIRA GANDHI NATIONAL OPEN UNIVERSITY
REGIONAL CENTRE DELHI-1

Subject: Report on Awareness Meeting at Aurangabad, Palwal, Haryana under Unnat Bharat Abhiyan

An awareness drive was held for villagers and Sarpanch of Augrangabad village, Palwal, Haryana under Unnat Bharat Abhiyan on 26.12.2019 at 12 noon. It was organized by IGNOU Regional Centre Delhi-1 in association with IGNOU Learner Support Centre-07179, Ramanujan College of Education, Village Mirtol, Delhi Mathura Road, PO Aurangabad, Palwal. Dr Ranjita Panda, Regional Director, Dr Vikas Singhal, Assistant Regional Director were the Resource persons from Regional Centre and Dr Rajkumari Verma, Principal/PIC & Ms Anil Tanwar, Cooridnator from LSC-07179, Ramanujan College, Palwal.

Dr Ranjita Panda, addressed the gathering about the importance of basic and adult education, health and sanitation. She encouraged and motivated all to avoid single use plastic and build this village into a sustainable one. Dr Vikas Singhal, ARD addressed the villagers about higher education enrollment scenario in our country, importance of educated girl child, various programmes offered by IGNOU and also fee exemption of SC/ST categories. The motives of Unnat Bharat Abhiyan were also discussed with villagers and Sarpanch of the Village.

Dr Rajkumari narrated various aspects of cleanliness and educated villagers how to use cloth bag in place of polythene bag.

Ms. Anil Tanwar were given 100 copies of Household survey forms so that the same may be filled by the houses with the help of Asha workers as discussed with Mr Hardeep Singh, Sarpanch of village Augrangabad. Mr Hardeep Singh, Sarpanch of Village, Augranabad was given village survey form so that the same would be filled up as required by the Unnat Bharat Abhiyan.

